Programme:

25.6.2016 Hungarian and Slovak Middle Distance Championship
26.6.2016 Hungarian and Slovak Relay Championship

Terrain:

Difficult mountain terrain with elevations between 700 and 900 m. The terrain is characterised by technically challenging morphology as a result of mining activity and post-mining landslides. Ideal for middle distance race, with a lot of terrain details, rocky areas and swamps. Relatively simpler parts of the terrain require different orienteering and allow higher running speed.

Maps:

1:10 000/5m according to IOF standards for categories MW 14-21
1:7 500/5m, for categories MW-35 and older + not championships categories
